

www.williamcdermott.com

Take Time for Prayer (148 words)

“No matter how busy you are, take time out for prayer, even if only for a loving glance. It is the wisest investment of your time you can make. The few seconds it requires to raise your mind to Me are richly repaid by deeper peace and keener mental efficiency . . .

Again I say to you: Pray! Pray! Pray!

Do not tell me that you are too busy to lift your thoughts to Me.

Give Me of your time, and I will do half and more of your work.

Give Me of your thoughts, and I will enlighten your mind.

Give Me of your will, and I will return to you My peace.

Give Me of your love, and I will fill your days with joy.

Give Me of your prayers, and I will open to you the inexhaustible treasures of Heaven.”